"Resolved that in the last sentence of Rule 15 the words beginning from "and" and ending with "cost" be deleted."

ORDER NO. FL. 1019-20, DATED 13TH AUGUST 1929.

Sanctioned.

B. SRINIVASA IYENGAR,
Financial Secretary to Government.

Delegation of Powers to Muzrai Officers in charge of Sub-Divisions.

READ—

Correspondence ending with the Muzrai Commissioner's letter No. 1357 of 1928-29, dated 26th June 1929, recommending the proposal of the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, in the matter of delegation of powers to the Assistant Commissioners in charge of Taluks, under the Mysore Religious and Charitable Institutions Regulation.

ORDER NO. 274-83—MUZ. 346-28-5, DATED 30TH JULY—12TH AUGUST 1929.

The Deputy Commissioners as Muzrai Officers of the Districts are now empowered under Rule 4, Cl. 7 of the Rules under the Mysore Religious and Charitable Institutions Regulation to appoint, suspend, dismiss, transfer and grant leave to hereditary Muzrai Servants in the case of appointments carrying a pay of not more than Rs. 25 per mensem. As a measure of decentralisation and administrative convenience, the Muzrai Commissioner now recommends that this power may be delegated to the Assistant Commissioners in charge of Taluks.

2. The recommendation of the Muzrai Commissioner is sanctioned. Separate Notification amending the Rules will issue accordingly.

B. SRINIVASA IYENGAR,
Secretary to Government,
Financial Department.
